IDENTIFICATION OF PROPERTIES FOR POTENTIAL HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE

Please complete and submit this form along with your building permit application for demolition to the Santa Clara County Building Inspection Office.

	1.	Property location:
 2. Is the proposed demolition related to a land development application (i.e. Grading, Spec Permit, ASA) already submitted, or to be submitted, to the County? Yes t 3. If yes, include land development application file number:		Street Address
Permit, ASA) already submitted, or to be submitted, to the County? Yes 3. If yes, include land development application file number: 4. Santa Clara County [Residential Unit] Property Record: All applicants are required to submit a property appraisal record to document the age of the property obtain a copy from the Assessor's Office on the 3 rd floor of the East Wing, 70 West Hedding Street. obtained by a representative of the property owner, said representative must present written permissis by the owner allowing the Assessor's Office to release the property appraisal record. 5. Is the property 50 years or older? Yes No Please note that the 50-year age reference is a discretionary guideline; there are circumstances where property less than 50 years oid may be potentially significant and applicants may be required to submit: a. a. Part II of the Identification of Properties for Potential Historic Significance form; and b. Photographs of each elevation of the subject property and any related outbuildings and associated features. 6. Date of construction (based upon submitted property record):		City/State	Zip Code	Assessor Parcel No. (APN)
 4. Santa Clara County [Residential Unit] Property Record: All applicants are required to submit a property appraisal record to document the age of the propert Obtain a copy from the Assessor's Office on the 3rd floor of the East Wing, 70 West Hedding Street. obtained by a representative of the property owner, said representative must present written permissi by the owner allowing the Assessor's Office to release the property appraisal record. 5. Is the property 50 years or older? Yes No Please note that the 50-year age reference is a discretionary guideline; there are circumstances where property less than 50 years old may be potentially significant and applicants may be required to submit: a. Part II of the Identification of Properties for Potential Historic Significance form; and b. Photographs of each elevation of the subject property record): 7. Has this property received any historic designation(s)? Yes No flyes, check the boxes that apply and attach the nomination form or documentation related to its listing National Register of Historic Places California Register of Historical Resources Historical Zoning District 8. Signature: By signing this application, I hereby acknowledge that the information contained herein, or subsequen submitted, is true and correct to my knowledge. 	2.	Is the proposed demolition related to a land development application (i.e. Grading, Special Permit, ASA) already submitted, or to be submitted, to the County?
All applicants are required to submit a property appraisal record to document the age of the proper Obtain a copy from the Assessor's Office on the 3 rd floor of the East Wing, 70 West Hedding Street. obtained by a representative of the property owner, said representative must present written permissis by the owner allowing the Assessor's Office to release the property appraisal record. 5. Is the property 50 years or older? Yes No Please note that the 50-year age reference is a discretionary guideline; there are circumstances where property less than 50 years old may be potentially significant and applicants may be required to submit: a. Part II of the Identification of Properties for Potential Historic Significance form; and b. Photographs of each elevation of the subject property record): T. Has this property received any historic designation(s)? Yes No If yes, check the boxes that apply and attach the nomination form or documentation related to its listing National Register of Historical Resources Inventory State Point of Historic Interest California Register of Historical Resources Historical Zoning District 8. Signature: By signing this application, I hereby acknowledge that the information contained herein, or subsequent submitted, is true and correct to my knowledge.	3.	If yes, include land development application file number:
Please note that the 50-year age reference is a discretionary guideline; there are circumstances where property less than 50 years old may be potentially significant and applicants may be required to subrisupplemental documentation. If yes, applicants are required to submit: a. Part II of the Identification of Properties for Potential Historic Significance form; and b. Photographs of each elevation of the subject property and any related outbuildings and associated features. 6. Date of construction (based upon submitted property record): 7. Has this property received any historic designation(s)? Yes No If yes, check the boxes that apply and attach the nomination form or documentation related to its listing California Historical Landmark Banta Clara County Heritage Resources Inventory State Point of Historic Interest Historical Zoning District 8. Signature: By signing this application, I hereby acknowledge that the information contained herein, or subsequent submitted, is true and correct to my knowledge. Date	All app Obtain obtain	blicants are required a copy from the As ed by a representativ	to submit a property appraisal rec sessor's Office on the 3 rd floor of th e of the property owner, said repre	ord to document the age of the property. The East Wing, 70 West Hedding Street. If esentative must present written permission
 a. Part II of the Identification of Properties for Potential Historic Significance form; and b. Photographs of each elevation of the subject property and any related outbuildings and associated features. 6. Date of construction (based upon submitted property record):	Please proper	e note that the 50-yea ty less than 50 years	ar age reference is a discretionary g s old may be potentially significant	uideline; there are circumstances where a
 7. Has this property received any historic designation(s)? Yes No If yes, check the boxes that apply and attach the nomination form or documentation related to its listing National Register of Historic Places California Historical Landmark Santa Clara County Heritage Resources Inventory State Point of Historic Interest California Register of Historical Resources Historical Zoning District 8. Signature: By signing this application, I hereby acknowledge that the information contained herein, or subsequent submitted, is true and correct to my knowledge. Signature of property owner or representative Date	lf yes,	a. Part II of theb. Photographs	Identification of Properties for Poter of each elevation of the subject pro-	0
If yes, check the boxes that apply and attach the nomination form or documentation related to its listing National Register of Historic Places California Historical Landmark Santa Clara County Heritage Resources Inventory State Point of Historic Interest California Register of Historical Resources Historical Zoning District 8. Signature: By signing this application, I hereby acknowledge that the information contained herein, or subsequen submitted, is true and correct to my knowledge. Signature of property owner or representative Date	6.	Date of construction (based upon submitted property record):
By signing this application, I hereby acknowledge that the information contained herein, or subsequent submitted, is true and correct to my knowledge. Signature of property owner or representative Date	lf yes, □ □	check the boxes that National Register of Santa Clara County	apply and attach the nomination for Historic Places	rm or documentation related to its listing. California Historical Landmark State Point of Historic Interest
	By sig	ning this application,	I hereby acknowledge that the info ct to my knowledge.	rmation contained herein, or subsequently
Print name of property owner or representative Date		Signature of propert	y owner or representative	Date
		Print name of prope	rty owner or representative	Date

For Internal Use Only: Plan Check No. _____