

PART II

IDENTIFICATION OF PROPERTIES FOR POTENTIAL HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE

If the property is 50 years or older and/or a designated historical resource, complete the following questions which will assist the Planning Office in making a preliminary determination whether the property potentially meets the threshold of significance according to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA). Properties that are eligible for listing in the California Register of Historical Resources must be given consideration in the CEQA process. Please note that the 50-year age reference is a discretionary guideline; there are circumstances where a property less than 50 years old may meet the threshold of significance according to CEQA.
