

GENERAL NOTES

- 1. THE INTENT OF THIS PLAN IS TO SHOW THE HEIGHT OF A RECENTLY CONSTRUCTED WOOD FENCE. THE UPPER ONE FOOT OF THE FENCE IS WOOD LATTICE. THE LOWER PORTION IS WOOD BOARD FENCE. THE ELEVATION VIEWS ON SHEET 2 SHOW THE MAXIMUM HEIGHT FROM GROUND LEVEL TO TOP OF FENCE AT EACH POST.
- 2. FENCE MEASUREMENTS WERE MADE DURING A FIELD VISIT ON OCTOBER 15, 2018. BASE TOPOGRAPHIC MAPPING DATA WAS COLLECTED ON OCTOBER 6, 2016 AND ON SEPTEMBER 14TH 2017.

Michael F. Goodhue

APN 583-18-056					PROJECT ENGINEER					MFG Engineers, Inc PO BOX 1914 APTOS, CA. 95001 (831) 763-1661 CEL (831) 601-9519					21283 CINNABAR HILLS ROAD, SAN JOSE, CA					DRAWN: MFG					CHECKED: MFG					DATE: 10/2018					SCALE: 1"=10'					JOB NO.					SHEET					1 OF 2																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																												